

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION TO THE DOCTORAL PROGRAM IN ENGINEERING (ENGLISH)

October 2019

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY AND SCIENCE TOKUSHIMA UNIVERSITY

Together with its fifteen international partner institutions, the Graduate School of Advanced Technology and Science at Tokushima University has decided to launch an international engineering education consortium to train specialist engineers with a sense of global citizenship and offer a Master's Program in Engineering (English), which can be completed by doing coursework entirely in English. The fifteen international partner institutions are Korea Maritime and Ocean University and Dong-Eui University in Korea; Harbin Institute of Technology, Tongji University, Xi'an Jiaotong University, Beijing University of Posts and Communications, Dalian University of Technology, Nantong University and Beihang University in China; The Institut National des Sciences Appliquées of Toulouse in France; Southern Taiwan University of Science and Technology and National Taiwan University of Science and Technology in Taiwan; Universiti Teknikal Malaysia Melaka in Malaysia; Florida Atlantic University in USA; Federal University of Technology –Paraná in Brazil.

This program aims to train students to be specialist engineers who can (i) actively work and communicate in an international environment; (ii) conduct advanced research; and (iii) engage in practical research and development in collaboration with industries.

Students may pursue their doctoral level studies by enrolling in both the Graduate School of Advanced Technology and Science at Tokushima University and one of the fourteen partner institutions. Students will then receive guidance from supervisors at both institutions.

The application procedure screens students from the partner institutions of the Graduate School of Advanced Technology and Science at Tokushima University. Successful applicants will be admitted to Tokushima University as regular students.
